Resume Builder Architecture
```typescript
// Database Schema
model Resume {
  id      String  @id @default(cuid()) userId  String
  title   String data    String  // JSON string of resume data
  pdfUrl String? // S3 URL for PDF

    skills: Array<{ category: string; items: string[] }> projects: Array<{ name: string; description: string; technologies: string[] }>
```

...

AI Matching Algorithm

```typescript
// Multi-factor scoring system

export function calculateJobMatch(candidateSkills: string[], jobSkills: string[]): number { const skillMatch = calculateSkillMatch(candidateSkills, jobSkills) const experienceMatch = calculateExperienceMatch(candidate, job)
    const locationMatch = calculateLocationMatch(candidate, job)
    const salaryMatch = calculateSalaryMatch(candidate, job)

    return (skillMatch * 0.4) + (experienceMatch * 0.25) +
        (locationMatch * 0.2) + (salaryMatch * 0.15)

// Skill matching with fuzzy logic

function calculateSkillMatch(candidateSkills: string[], jobSkills: string[]): number { let totalScore = 0
    let maxPossibleScore = jobSkills.length * 100

    for (const jobSkill of jobSkills) {
        const bestMatch = findBestSkillMatch(jobSkill, candidateSkills)
        totalScore += bestMatch.score

    return (totalScore / maxPossibleScore) * 100
```

Smart Search Implementation

```typescript
// Enhanced job search with AI scoring export async function searchJobsWithAI(params:SearchParams, userSkills: string[]) {

const jobs = await prisma.job.findMany({
  where: buildSearchFilters(params),
  include: { company: true, applications: true }

// Calculate match scores for each job
const jobsWithScores = jobs.map(job => ({
  ...job,
  matchScore: calculateJobMatch(userSkills, parseJobSkills(job.skills)),
  skillGaps: identifySkillGaps(userSkills, parseJobSkills(job.skills))

// Sort by relevance and match score return jobsWithScores.sort((a, b) => b.matchScore - a.matchScore)
...

```
